

NEWSMAKERS

Palmiter

Brown

Galloway

Crowley

Donohue

Lorenzen

Gray

Heatherington

Manning

Thisis

■ Marty Palmiter has recently received certification as a Musikgarten instructor for teaching family music to children (with their parents) ages 0 to 18 months, 18 months to 3 years, and 3 to 5 years. Palmiter lives in Kalispell and is forming classes that will begin in late September. Musikgarten, based in Greensboro, N.C., specializes in early childhood music and movement programs for children from birth to age 9. Palmiter can be reached at 871-2733.

■ Chuck Brown, a Whitefish resident and hospitality veteran, together with a business partner in California has formed LPF Hospitality Performance, LLC; a unique global hospitality industry resource and expansive knowledge network. LPF Hospitality Perform-

University to become a certified life care planner. She is the owner and manager of Eagleview Consulting, LLC, doing business as Eagleview West, which provides life-care planning services and elder-care management. Crowley has specialized in long-term care for the last seven years while working as a nationally certified critical-care nurse at Kalispell Regional Medical Center. She can be reached at 212-0620, by e-mail at info@EagleviewWest.com, or go to www.EagleviewWest.com for further information.

■ Myron Kenney has returned to Kalispell to reopen Angel Healing Center, which originally started in Kalispell in 1997. It will be based at Amore Salon and Spa, 35 Fifth Ave. W.

The healing center has operated in Las Vegas for the past nine years, serving clients from around the world. Kenney is a Kalispell native. Angel Healing Center utilizes an unusual approach to health with a European ozone process being used in conjunction with colon hydrotherapy and steams. Kenney can be reached at 885-8878 or go to <http://www.angelhealingcenter.com>.

■ Eileen Donohue of Helena is the new executive director of The Nurturing Center in Kalispell. She brings wide experience in the nonprofit sector and with programs serving families. Most recently Donohue worked with Healthy Mothers, Healthy Babies in Helena. Donohue has been a child-care provider, has worked in the child and adult care food programs in Colorado and Montana and has extensive nonprofit education and experience. She has a degree in accounting with an emphasis in early childhood education. Donohue replaces founding executive director Susan Christofferson, who died in February.